PERSONAL AND LOCAL ITEMS OF NEWS.

Now the farmer swells with pride,
As he scans his acres wide,
Knowing now 'tis well to bide
The harvest time in Kansas:

The Big river has nearly suspended operations.

Rev. Davidson, of Goddard, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Campbell is repairing his tasty cottage on Market street.

A number of movers' teams passed through the city yesterday.

Yesterday was an unusually dull day, scarcely any farmers being in town.

M. W. Levy, of Topeka avenue, is applying a tasty new dress to his house and fence.

Mr. D. Finkler, of Vevay, Indiana, an acquaintance of J. E. Richmond, is in the city.

The Pacific express office was moved yesterday to the north room in the McPherson block.

It is refreshing to see the noble Red man puffing a cigar in front of the Douglas avenue hotel.

H. G. Lee writes home that he is enjoying his vacation hunting and fishing among the Thousand Isles.

Wonder if Doctor McAdams found anything interesting in the Irish World which he found yesterday.

The average colored drum major can affect more style all by himself than an entire royal household.

The Lee real estate agency has sold to R. K. Stanley of Indianapolis, Ind., three and a half acres in the Fitzgerald addition.

Mr. Stoner, who has been managing the branch house of Oberne, Hosick & Co., in this city, will soon leave for Kansas City.

W. C. Woodman is adding thirty-five feet to the rear of his brick block, next south of "The First Arkansas Valley Bank."

The congregation of Wesley chapel, Keechi township, will give an ice cream festival to-night which they invite their city friends.

Frank Oliver, the prohibition kicker, wears a gold "Blaine and Logan" badge—sent to him by some of his missionary friends down East.

The police judge attended to three plain drunks, one gambler, four saloon keepers and nine vagrants yesterday. The fines aggregated $966.

The block formerly occupied by the Troy steam laundry, is being tastefully painted and papered, the Myers Bros' having the contract.

W. C. Pargart, late traveling agent for Oberne, Hosick & Co., Kansas City, has been sent to this place to take charge of their business here.

A very disagreeable hot south wind has been blowing for two days, making every body uncomfortable. The mercury stood as high as 97 yesterday.

The new brick blocks of F. G. Smyth, O. C. Daley and P. V. Healey, on east Douglas, are up to the second story, and the work goes rapidly on.

Miss Emma Williams, of Wellington, has been in town for a few days. She purchased of the new firm, Ion, Arnold & Co., an elegant new upright piano.

Mr. Eldridge, on the corner of First and Emporia streets, is grading for a flagstone pavement, while Mr. Allen, on Topeka avenue, is doing likewise.

Our musical artists might learn something in their line by a geographical survey of the scalp of old Fal-lal-la and Leaping Frog from the Douglas Avenue.

The Dorsey building next to the McPherson block, was painted yesterday, which added to the new cornice and other improvements, gives it a handsome appearance.

J. C. Herring, who is agent for the Derby town company, reports a new drug store, dry goods store and implement house, all in process of erection in that thrifty little village.

Old soldiers living near Valley Center, Post No. 335, meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. All old soldiers invited to join.

LEX TAYLOR, P. C.

Mr. Balch's building near the corner of Douglas and Water street, has been engaged preparatory to moving it away. Mr. B. intends to replace it with a two-story brick building.

The Clearwater Times this week speaks a good word for all the candidates who had honored it with a call without reference to politics. The cosmopolitan spirit of the Times is worthy of all commendation.

Capt. Antonio Brien has accepted the invitation, formally made, to become the drill master and commanding officer of the young men's Republican marching club. It will be the flambeau club of the state under Capt. B's superb drilling.

Miss Maud King is going to teach the same school she taught last winter, district 132 Park township. Miss King says there does not seem to be near enough teachers in this county for the schools, but that teachers are unable to raise the price on that account.

A Mr. Miller, living north of Cheney, brought in and lost several ears of corn with Joeelyn & Thomas, which are so large that Al declares they have been forced to hire a man to tell passersby that it is not unripe corn wood.

J. T. McMillen leaves in our office a cluster of amber grapes weighing one pound and two ounces and on which there is not a single imperfect berry. Mr. Mc says he has clusters that would weigh fully one pound and a half and which he will deliver to Moore for the state fair and exposition at Cincinnati.

One of the EAGLE'S oldest and most valued correspondents, G. K. Ayers, speaks through our columns this morning, touching the first duty of the citizen. It is unnecessary for us to say that anything coming from Ayers' pen must be readable and instructive. He is always sound and, what is equally praiseworthy, always consistent.

Rev. Brady, of Burlington, Kansas, of whom a personal was made yesterday, in company with Rev. Harper, honored us for one of his cloth, having a decided tendency to look out upon this world and his political and other perplexities through the spectacles of a philosopher. For two or three weeks he has been doing southwestern Kansas with a horse and buggy, taking in all the preachers, without regard to denomination, and all editors, whom he says he loves, without regard to politics, although he says he is for Johnny Martin and Jimmy Blaine.

Levi Branson, of Grayson township, is one of the solid farmers of that locality, and who has been farming a success in these parts. Mr. Branson raised his boys and learned them the trade of farming, thinking they would follow the calling, but last week his Levi, who is just of age, married one of the fair daughters of that neighborhood, Miss Ida Strappell, and located in Kansas City, and is running on a railroad landing that place. Levi is a good boy, and his father wishes success to him and his

A general row in a gambling house on Monday night led to the arrest of nine men on a charge of vagrancy. They were each fined $25, which was promptly paid by two of them. Execution on the others was suspended twelve hours to give them an opportunity to leave town. It is believed that the city could spare a few of that class of men without serious damage.

George Lopez, who is located on the north side of the Simerone, Indian territory, is in the city a witness in the United States court. George says the cow boys and cattle men generally agree that Payne and his party have as much right in the territory as themselves, and are only kept out by a trick of the government officials, and that Payne is now being dragged around through the territory by the military in order to keep him from the United States court at Wichita.

Some fellow who had evidently seen somebody drinking whisky, it into his head to open a little shooting match in the Brunswick billiard hall last evening. He was swinging aloated revolver and swearing that he would hit somebody when the weapon slipped from his grasp, struck the floor and was dispersed making a hole in the carpet. Fortunately no one was hit. The lager beer is flowing, gently flowing, down the throats of many of the fellows who are here tending court.

One of the most pleasant social events of the summer was the entertainment last evening, by Fred L. and the Misses Guthrie, of nearly seventy young gentlemen and ladies. The early part of the evening was devoted to music and recitations, after which an hour or two was spent in mirth-provoking games. The beauty of the evening added largely to the pleasure of the occasion. The Misses Lettie Herring, Lettie Smyth, Ada Guthrie and Julia Barwise favored the company with choice recitations, and Mrs. A. G. W. and the Misses Grace Bear and Lulu Granger rendered some excellent piano solos.

Messrs. Appleby & Co. are just completing a large two-story addition to their planing mill. This firm commenced business two years ago in a small building on north Main street. Since then their patronage has steadily increased until now they require a large two-story building 46x50 feet. On the first floor they have a 24-inch planer, Pay's three side moulder, a buzz-saw and lathe machine. On the second floor is a scroll saw, cross-cut saw, shaper, borer and emery grinder. In a few weeks they will add a heavy sized tenon machine, power mortiser, blind lat tenoner and staple driver. This mill compares favorably with others in the state. They are now prepared to manufacture doors, sash and all kinds of mouldings, or anything else, "from a basket to a meeting house." Messrs Appleby & Co. are filling orders from the Neosho river west to Harper.

Councilman M. Zimmerly, a few weeks since, went down to Genda Springs on the advice of his physician, but there was so much demanding his attention at home in the way of official duties and private business, that he returned before experiencing any real beneficial effects. But he has now so arranged his affairs that he can get off twenty or thirty days, so to-morrow morning, in company with Councilman Adams, who, also has been under the weather for some time, will take the train for Hot Springs, Arkansas.

As there has been much said about sewerage in the city of Wichita, and as it is only two evident that something in that direction must be attempted before many years, we suggest that our two councilmen, who both have level heads when it comes to matters of business, and who, when at the Hot Springs, were of official duties and private business, that he returned before experiencing any real beneficial effects.
